THE TRUST PERFORMING ARTS CENTER SEASON LAUNCH

A festive evening featuring three performances of "Chopin Dances"—a collaboration between the Durang Dance Collective and pianist Kendra Bigley in the Great Hall as well as live performances in the Square Halo Gallery, Trust swag giveaways and more! Visit lancastertrust.com for information.

7:30, 8 & 8:30 p.m. | September 3
The Trust Performing Arts Center

RADIUM GIRLS

Music, Worship & Performing Arts students present "Radium Girls," a play by D. W. Gregory. In the '20s, radium was a miracle cure, Marie Curie was an international celebrity, and luminous watches were the latest rage—until the girls who painted them began to fall ill with a mysterious disease. Inspired by a true story, "Radium Girls" traces the efforts of Grace Fryer, a dial painter, as she gets her day in court. Tickets are limited. Suitable for ages 12 and up.

7:30 p.m. | September 10 & 17

2 & 7:30 p.m. | September 11 & 18
The Trust Performing Arts Center – Black Box

AMAZING GRACE

Lancaster Bible College is honored to host Servant Stage Company's regional premiere of the Broadway musical "Amazing Grace." Experience the awe-inspiring true story behind the world's most beloved song. All shows are pay-what-you-will in keeping with Servant Stage's mission to make exceptional performances accessible to all. Visit servantstage.org.

7 p.m. | October 1, 8, 15

2 & 7 p.m. | October 2-3, 9-10, 16-17
Lancaster Bible College | Good Shepherd Chapel

BEIJING GUITAR DUO

Guitarists Meng Su and Yameng Wang perform selections from Debussy, Fauré, Enrique Granados and more. Praised by Classical Guitar Magazine as "having the star potential to serve as inspiration for new generations of guitarists to come," the Beijing Guitar Duo made its New York debut in Carnegie Hall in 2010 and launched an international concert career shortly after, performing around the world in halls such as the Concertgebouw, Palau de Musica, Tchaikovsky Hall and the National Theatre in Beijing.

3 p.m. | NEW DATE: Sunday, March 6
The Trust Performing Arts Center

FALL CHOIR CONCERT The Gift to Sing

The college's Fall Choir Concert celebrates the many ways God blesses our lives through music, featuring the LBC Chorale, Chamber Singers, Women's Chorus and Men's Chorus in a wide variety of repertoire from the Renaissance to today.

7:30 p.m. October 29

3 p.m. October 30

The Trust Performing Arts Center

BALLET MAGNIFICAT | Deliver Us

*Sponsored in part by the Melva S. McIlwaine
Guest Artist Endowment Fund*

Lancaster Bible College's Arts and Culture Series presents Ballet Magnificat in "Deliver Us," one of the company's most popular and longest touring ballets. Set under the blazing Egyptian sun, the enslaved Jewish people cry out for a deliverer. One man, Moses, challenges Pharaoh and leads the people to freedom—a vivid prophetic picture pointing to what Jesus Christ did on Calvary. Ballet Magnificat was founded in 1986 as America's first professional dance company dedicated to presenting the good news of Jesus Christ to the world.

7 p.m. | November 4
Good Shepherd Chapel

FALL INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT

An Evening of Honor

This memorable concert will feature the strings, percussion and wind ensembles as they present the musical works of Felix Mendelssohn and John Williams, including a beautiful tribute to our nation's veterans.

 3 p.m. | November 14
Good Shepherd Chapel

THE LION, THE WITCH & THE WARDROBE

The Reverie Actor's Company of Lancaster presents a unique adaptation of C. S. Lewis' beloved story in which all the roles are performed by two actors. This amazing 45-minute adaptation was created by renowned Broadway actress Le Clanché du Rand and toured by the Lincoln Center. Join the Pevensie children in their fantastic journey through the wardrobe where they meet all of your favorite characters from Narnia. It's the perfect family outing to prepare for the holiday season

 11 a.m. & 1 p.m. | November 27, December 4,* 11, 17 & 18
The Trust Performing Arts Center – Black Box

*11 a.m. only

CHANTICLEER A Chanticleer Christmas

The college is thrilled to present multi-Grammy Award winner, Chanticleer, a favorite of a cappella lovers the world over. Founded in San Francisco in 1978, Chanticleer is known globally as “an orchestra of voices” for the seamless blend of its 12 male voices, ranging from countertenor to bass, and its original interpretations of vocal literature, from Renaissance to jazz and from gospel to venturesome new music.

7:30 p.m. | November 29
The Trust Performing Arts Center

CHRISTMAS CONCERT A Messiah Mosaic

An annual college tradition, the 2021 Christmas Concert, “A Messiah Mosaic,” features several LBC ensembles in a performance that weaves together a wide variety of Advent and Christmas songs with some of your favorite movements from Handel’s beloved masterpiece.

7 p.m. | December 3
2 & 7 p.m. | December 4
Good Shepherd Chapel

WINTER MUSICAL Beauty and the Beast

EVENT CANCELLED

Unfortunately, Beauty and the Beast will not be able to be performed at LBC. Watch lbc.edu/events for a new show title soon!

7 p.m. | January 21 & 28

2 & 7 p.m. | January 22 & 29
Good Shepherd Chapel

THE SQUARE HALO GALLERY Inklings Conference

The 2022 Square Halo Books Conference focuses on “The Inklings—Creativity, Collaboration and Community.” The event will include lectures, writing workshops, a staged reading of J. R. R. Tolkien’s short story “Leaf by Niggle,” an Inklings-inspired art exhibition, a concert by Andrew Peterson and more. Featured contributors include: Bonnie Bosso, Graham Dennis, Matthew Dickerson, Hannah Eagleson, John Hendrix, Douglas McKelvey, Christine Perrin, Christie Purifoy, Reverie Actor’s Company, Shawn Smucker and Donald T. Williams. Reserve tickets at squarehalobooks.com/conferences.

February 11-12
The Trust Performing Arts Center

THE JANE AUSTEN PLAYLIST

Experience an evening of prose and music, through piano and voice, that influenced an author who is internationally recognized as a leading female voice in literature and history. Featuring songs from Jane Austen's personal collection as well as musicians and performers in period costume.

7:30 p.m. | February 14
The Trust Performing Arts Center

THE DOVER QUARTET with CHRISTOPHER SHIH

Called "the young American string quartet of the moment" (New Yorker), the Dover Quartet catapulted to international stardom in 2013 and has since become one of the most in-demand ensembles in the world. Physician and pianist Christopher Shih has a remarkable dual career as a full-time practicing physician and actively concertizing pianist. He has performed in major venues in over a dozen countries and multiple U.S. cities. The Dover Quartet will present selections from Mozart and Ravel, joined by Shih for Shostakovich's monumental "Piano Quintet in G Minor."

3 p.m. | March 27

SEEN COLLECTIVE

SEEN Collective uses original music to tell the stories of the women in the Bible and the God who saw them. SEEN touches down at a key point in each of their journeys. Written and led by Sight & Sound writer Kristen Brewer, SEEN features a collective of some of the region's best female performers, including an LBC alumna.

7:30 p.m. | April 10
The Trust Performing Arts Center

SPRING COLLEGE CONCERTS

ONE HOPE

EPHESIANS
4:4-6

CHAPEL | One Hope

Throughout 2021-22, Chapel gatherings at LBC | Capital will focus on the theme of One Hope | Ephesians 4:4-6: "There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call—one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all." Chapel takes place at 9:10 a.m. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays and is live-streamed at lbc.edu/chapel.

Watch for details about additional college speakers at lbc.edu/events.
