LANCASTER BIBLE COLLEGE
90 Years on Mission

FROM THE PRESIDENT

THOMAS L. KIEDIS, PhD, DMin

Welcome to Lancaster Bible College | Capital Seminary and Graduate School, where our mission is to educate Christian students to think and live a biblical worldview and proclaim Christ by serving Him in the Church and society. This year marks ninety years since Dr. Heydt founded what would become Lancaster Bible College, when eight daytime students and fourteen evening students met in the convention hall at West Orange and Pine Street in Lancaster. We gather today as One LBC—rooted in the past, preparing in the present, and building for the future.

As we celebrate 90 years of God’s faithfulness toward LBC, we look back with gratitude but also look ahead with excitement! We continue to build on a foundation that enables us to be ready in every season, maintaining our strong missional focus while equipping students to understand their part in God’s great story of redemption. We want students to see our powerful Creator and His grand redemptive narrative as the story that frames every person and every subject. History, education, business, art, music...you name it. All find their ultimate fulfillment in service to the Creator, or as Paul put it, to bring unity to all things in heaven and on earth under Christ (Ephesians 1:10). Our prayer for students is that they discover their part in God’s over-arching redemptive narrative from Creation to eternity.

Because God does have a part for each of us to play, what could be more important than knowing Him, His Word, and our part in His story? At LBC | Capital, we believe that this happens as students study God’s Word and live it out through meaningful participation in the life of the local and global Church.

Today, we celebrate the Classes of 2023 and 2024 and all they have accomplished. We celebrate the friendships that have been formed, skills that have been developed, and life transformation that has occurred. We celebrate God’s faithful work in their lives, equipping them for good works and conforming them to the image of His Son. Because of this, we send our graduates on to the next phase of their journey with full confidence and great joy, trusting the Author of every story.

Gratefully,

Thomas L. Kiedis, PhD, DMin
LBC | Capital President

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

ERIC MASON, DMIN

Founder and Senior Pastor, Epiphany Fellowship Church Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Dr. Eric Mason is founder and Senior Pastor of Epiphany Fellowship Church in Philadelphia, PA. He is also the founder and President of Thriving, which is an urban ministry organization committed to training leaders for ministry in cities locally, nationally, and internationally. Dr. Mason has authored several books including Manhood Restored (Leadership Kit and Study Guide), Urban Apologetics: Restoring Black Dignity with the Gospel, and Urban Apologetics: Cults and Cultural Ideologies. Additionally, Dr. Mason has contributed to multiple publications including The Mission of God Bible Study Bible, Keep your Head Up, and several online articles.

Dr. Mason has been graced by God to preach and teach at churches and conferences in the United States and globally. Dr. Mason went to Bowie State University where he received a Bachelor of Science in Psychology. While there, he was burdened to go into full-time vocational service to the Lord in ministry. During the completion of his undergraduate degree, he taught bible studies on campus to the college students, lead people to Jesus, and worked with youth and young adults at his church.

Seeking to be a biblically literate minister of the gospel, Dr. Mason ventured to Dallas Theological Seminary where he earned a Master of Theology degree. He became a member of Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship (OCBF) under the pastoral leadership of Dr. Tony Evans who would then become his father in the ministry. Meanwhile, Dr. Mason was hired by STEP/Bridge Builders (an inner-city organization) as a counselor and mentor to those “at risk” in the Southern and Eastern sectors of Dallas, TX. This organization had several community centers, high schools, and projects discipling troubled youth and former gang members. He was co-youth pastor to over 500+ youth at OCBF and then served the church as prison ministry director where he over saw 17 ministers who engaged troubled youth in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex.

Upon completion of Seminary, Dr. Mason received his ordination in May 2000 into the gospel ministry by the council of elders at OCBF with Dr. Tony Evans at the council’s helm. He then ventured to Houston, TX to serve in the role of Assistant Pastor of Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church.

In addition, he served as an adjunct professor at the College of Biblical Studies. Dr. Mason then was called to serve as the Regional Director of the Urban Schools Alternative at OCBF. Upon receiving the call to Philadelphia, Fellowship Bible Church in Little Rock, AR offered to train him in leadership and church planting. After a year of sitting under the elder’s tutelage, they affirm upon him through the laying on of hands and commissioned him to the work of church planting.

In May 2007, he earned his Doctor of Ministry degree at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. While starting Epiphany Fellowship, Dr. Mason also served as adjunct professor at Biblical Theological Seminary for a time.

Dr. Eric Mason is married to his wife of 25 years, Yvette and they have three sons Immanuel, Nehemiah, Ephraim, and daughter Amalyah.

COLLEGE HYMN

MY HOPE IS IN THE LORD

My hope is in the Lord,
Who gave Himself for me,
And paid the price of all my sin
at Calvary.
For me He died,
For me He lives,
And everlasting life and light
He freely gives.

No merit of my own,
His anger to suppress,
My only hope is found
in Jesus' righteousness.
For me He died,
For me He lives,
And everlasting life and light
He freely gives.

And now for me He stands,
before the Father's throne,
He shows His wounded hands,
and names me as His own.
For me He died,
For me He lives,
And everlasting life and light
He freely gives.

His grace has planned it all,
'Tis mine but to believe,
And recognize His work of love and Christ receive.
For me He died,
For me He lives,
And everlasting life and light
He freely gives.

Sigma Epsilon Rho

The mission of Sigma Epsilon Rho is to educate Christian students so that they may proclaim Jesus Christ and serve Him in the Church and society. This is actualized in the Business Administration program's vision to develop, equip and inspire fully devoted followers of Jesus Christ and provide them with the necessary skills to be successful, God-honoring business leaders. Such are the members of Sigma Epsilon Rho. Members embody our program's four educational pillars: comprehension, competency, communication, and character. They have demonstrated great character – integrity, virtue, and determination – and it is for this reason we honor them most. Our prayer is that they continue to abide in Christ, allowing Him to shape and lead them to be effective witnesses for others in the business world and beyond.

Michael D. Myers

Academic Honors

The gold stole worn around the graduate's neck indicates graduating Summa Cum Laude (GPA of 3.90-4.00); the white stole indicates graduating Magna Cum Laude (GPA of 3.75-3.89); the red stole indicates graduating Cum Laude (GPA of 3.50-3.74).

Military Service Recognition

The red, white, and blue cords are worn by graduates who are either veterans or active-duty members of the United States Armed Forces in recognition of their sacrificial service.

Education Degrees

The students who receive the Bachelor of Science in Education degree will also be eligible for teaching certificates from the Pennsylvania Department of Education and the Association of Christian Schools International.

The graduates who are unable to attend this Commencement will graduate in absentia and their names will not be read. This program does not constitute the official record of Lancaster Bible College's 2023-2024 graduates, though the listing was as accurate as possible at the time of publication. The official record of graduates is kept in the Registrar's Office.

Academic Regalia

Academic regalia of gown and hood are believed to have had their beginnings at the English universities of Oxford and Cambridge during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries. The hoods are a carryover from the times when the clergy who operated the universities wore them to protect their shaved heads in winter or to collect alms when worn as shoulder capes.

While originating from medieval times, academic attire has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any trappings of rank or social standing underneath. Gowns are usually designed with pointed sleeves for the bachelor's degree; long, closed sleeves with a slit at the arm or wrist for the master's degree; and full bell double sleeves for the doctor's degree. Bachelor's and master's degree gowns have no trimming. For the doctor's degree, the gown has velvet edging down the front and three bars of velvet across each sleeve in the color representative of the academic major or degree.

Most gowns are the traditional black; a different colored gown worn by a faculty member indicates the color of the college or university from which the faculty member graduated.

Academic caps in North America are usually the mortarboard style for all degrees. The cap for the doctor's degree may be made of velvet and may have a gold tassel instead of the color usually worn to represent the academic discipline. In place of the mortarboard, some North American colleges and universities have adopted the European style cap, which is called a tam.

Presidential Medallion

A medallion or seal of office worn by the head of an educational institution is a practice that also dates to the Middle Ages. In those times, a seal was used to mark documents as official. Wearing the seal eventually became a symbol of authority. The presidential medallion of Lancaster Bible College | Capital Seminary and Graduate School is a cast of the College Seal, incorporating a Conestoga wagon, an open Bible, and the College verse: "The Word of the Lord endures forever." (1 Peter 1:25). The Conestoga wagon reflects the historical heritage of Lancaster County and represents sending forth spiritual pioneers and laborers from LBC | Capital. Behind the Conestoga wagon is the open Bible, signifying that the Word of God is the foundation of LBC | Capital, as is also indicated by the College verse.

Servant's Towel

Since 1933, servant leadership has been the culture of Lancaster Bible College | Capital Seminary and Graduate School. The mission of LBC | Capital is to educate Christian students to think and live a biblical worldview and to proclaim Christ by serving Him in the Church and society. Christ was the ultimate example of servanthood, as God Incarnate willingly humbled Himself by taking the form of a man.

On the night He was betrayed, Jesus took not only the bread and the cup as lasting symbols of His self-giving love, but also a servant's towel. He stepped down from the seat of honor, took off His outer clothing, put a towel around His waist and washed His disciples' feet. In so doing, He offered them a profound and radically counter-culture demonstration of the very heart of God. The joy-filled life in which He invites His followers to participate involves taking up the towel with Him.

The servant's towel is more than a symbol at LBC | Capital. It is a tangible expression of our mission, reminding graduates that everything they have accomplished and will accomplish comes by participating in the servant ministry of Jesus Christ.

The servant's towel is reminiscent of the emphasis placed, throughout students' LBC | Capital experience, on serving one another in love. Today, our graduates receive not only academic degrees, but also towels as they embark on a new phase of their servant ministry to the Church and society. The servant's towel contains a printed reminder of Jesus' ministry to His disciples. Our prayer is that our graduates will accept the challenge to follow Christ's example of servant leadership.

Alumni Pin

The origin of a pinning ceremony dates to the 12th century. By 1916, pinning ceremonies were common in the United States and England. Initially, pinning ceremonies were intended for students who were becoming nurses. Since then, many colleges and universities have created their own pins and host pinning ceremonies for all graduates.

LBC | Capital's alumni pin displays the cross pathways, which comes directly from the logo and promise to students that "Your journey is our focus." Our students are on a journey to make a difference. The journey, or path, is represented by an arc reaching toward a destination. The path of our institution, with the intent to guide students along their journey, is also represented. Where the two paths join is a defining moment—one that conveys the journey and who the student is and will become. This moment is symbolized in the intersection point. LBC | Capital provides a unique college experience centered on the Bible. That experience prepares students for their journeys and their mission to "proclaim Christ in the Church and society."

The alumni pin represents not only the path to graduation but also the journey that follows this momentous day. Today, these graduates join a family of more than 10,000 LBC | Capital alumni around the world who are serving the Church and society. The alumni pin is a celebration of the journey thus far and a reminder that another journey is just beginning. Wear it proudly as you go and serve.

The scarlet trustee gowns are emblazoned with scarlet facing panels and rouge sleeves trimmed in white braid. The hood features the satin red and white colors of Lancaster Bible College. The scarlet, velvet, and eight-sided doctoral tam is a departure from the usual mortarboard and is similar to those used by certain European universities and by some other American institutions to denote trustee rankings. These gowns add to the significance of this occasion and represent the dedication and support of the Board of Trustees of Lancaster Bible College | Capital Seminary and Graduate School.
